Perry Wood will speak. To quote from one of Perry's books, How to Create the Perfect Riding Horse:

Perry Wood is an internationally recognised horseman, and author of numerous equestrian titles including the widely acclaimed Real Riding ... Perry believes that the classical principle of softness, lightness and understanding are the keys to building successful relationships with horses, and from such relationships suppleness, collection and incredible results are attainable by anyone. With his extensive knowledge and extraordinary ability to create breakthrough results with horses and riders of all levels and abilities, he is in constant demand at home and abroad for his riding and horsemanship clinics.
